ASSOCIATION OF SURGEONS IN PRIMARY CARE

proudly announce their 3rd Annual Conference, in Association with the British Association of No Scalpel Vasectomists (BANSV)

Opportunities and Challenges

at Prospero House, 241 Borough High Street, London, SE1 1GA
Saturday 15th May 2010

Surgical services in primary care is undergoing revolutionary changes in the UK. Our conference will explore all issues related to the delivery of surgical service within primary care and a panel of high profile guest speakers will help us examine the opportunities and challenges - perceived and real. It should be of immense interest to all clinicians and managers delivering surgical services or intending to deliver within the primary care sector.

Raj Dhumale
President, ASPC
