

Dermatology Lead on the ASPC Council – Call for Applications

The ASPC invites applications for the prestigious role of Dermatology Lead.

Deadline for applications: 22nd February 2026

Key Attributes

Essential attributes

- Extensive experience in dermatology
- Skin surgery skills
- A dermoscopy diploma or above-average diagnostic skills for GP-managed skin lesions
- Strong communication skills

Preferable attributes:

- Experience in training or teaching

Key Responsibilities

The Dermatology Lead will be responsible for:

- Leading on ASPC policy development relating to Dermatology and Dermoscopy
- Supporting Miles in community-based skin surgery training
- Advising and responding to ASPC members on dermatology and dermoscopy queries
- Being an active ASPC Council member, contributing beyond dermatology to the wider direction of the Association
- Participating in the ASPC Skin WhatsApp group
- Attending, helping to organise, and potentially presenting at the ASPC Annual Conference and any dermatology/skin surgery study days
- Forming alliances and relationships with allied dermatology organisations across primary and secondary care
- Updating dermatology-related material on the ASPC website as required
- Helping grow ASPC membership by identifying, recruiting, and retaining GPs who focus on skin surgery

Remuneration and Benefits

There is no direct remuneration, but the role includes a number of perks and reimbursements:

- Free attendance at the ASPC Annual Conference
- Travel expenses for ASPC business
- Free attendance, accommodation, and dinner at selected ASPC events and Council meetings
- A significant opportunity to influence the future of community surgery, while enhancing your own professional standing, recognition, and career development

How to Apply

Please submit a concise CV and a covering letter outlining:

- Your motivation for joining the ASPC Council
- Why we need a Dermatology Lead alongside a Skin Surgery Lead
- How the ASPC can differentiate itself from the PCDS

Applications should be sent to Paula by midnight 22nd February: Admin@ASPC-uk.net

For informal enquiries, feel free to contact Miles, Soon, myself, or any other ASPC Council member.

Gareth James
ASPC President